

§ 18-3-306. Temporary signs. _

(a) Generally. A temporary sign is allowed in all zoning districts. A temporary real estate or construction sign for more than one lot shall have a maximum area of 48 square feet or, if the property has 500 feet or more of road frontage, 64 square feet. Otherwise, a temporary sign shall have a maximum area of nine square feet in residential districts and 24 square feet in all other districts. The height of a temporary sign may not exceed 12 feet above grade level.

(b) Temporary directional signs. A maximum of six temporary directional signs of no more than three square feet in area or three feet in height are allowed per event or destination, with a double-faced sign counting as one sign. A temporary directional sign shall be self-supporting and may be posted only on weekends between 8:00 a.m. on Friday and 9:00 a.m. on the following Monday or between 9:00 a.m. on County, State, or federal holidays and 9:00 a.m. on the following day. Temporary directional signs may be placed within a County right-of-way if the signs are located at least three feet from any curbed or paved area.
