Legislative (State Issues):

Responsible for continuous review and analysis of proposed state legislation; and assures representation at hearings on important legislation; coordinates with State Association during legislative session; supports RPAC. Meets weekly on Monday mornings during legislative session (Jan-March).

REALTOR® Community Service:

Plans, solicits sponsors and organizes annual golf tournament and other events to benefit Anne Arundel Community College REALTOR® Endowment Fund, Harvest for the Hungry and many other charities. Meets as needed, depending upon project.

REALTOR® Political Action Committee (RPAC):

Solicits funds to support those candidates for political office whom, by their voting record or interest, have displayed positive attitudes toward the real estate industry's positions. Meet at call of the Chairperson.

Young Professionals Networking (YPN):

Volunteers, plan, promote and attend events and activities for the YPN group. You will encourage development in the four key areas: leadership, real estate industry, peers, and community. Age is not a factor. Meetings are monthly, in-person; and one week prior to an event.

Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, & Accessibility (IDEA):

The Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Accessibility (IDEA) Committee is dedicated to fostering a culture of acceptance and belonging within the Association and its membership. Our mission is to promote inclusive practices, create opportunities for meaningful engagement, and maximize outreach efforts to ensure that every voice is valued and heard. Meetings are scheduled as necessary by the Committee Chair.
